Matt has spent most of the past 15 years working within the Medicaid program. Prior to joining Finity, he was the Deputy Medicaid Director in New Mexico, where he also served for several months as the Acting Medicaid Director. In 2011, he was appointed by Governor Richardson as the Deputy Secretary for New Mexico's Aging and Long-Term Services Department and was the Vice President for Medicaid Policy in United Healthgroup's Government Affairs department. A long-time proponent of good beer, he also spent a brief time as the General Manager for Duel Brewing, Santa Fe's newest craft brewery.
