Alexis Bakofsky is a devoted public servant with a strong commitment to the policyholders of Florida. Ms. Bakofsky was appointed to serve as Deputy Commissioner of Life & Health at the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation (OIR) in November 2024. In this role, she oversees the Life and Health Financial Oversight and Product Review units. She also serves as the chairwoman of the Florida Health Insurance Advisory Board, a member of the State Consumer Health Information and Policy (SCHIP) Advisory Council, and was appointed a member of the Rare Disease Advisory Council by Governor DeSantis.

Prior to her appointment as Deputy Commissioner of Life and Health, Ms. Bakofsky served as OIR's Chief of Staff, Deputy Chief of Staff and Communications Director, acting as a policy advisor to the Commissioner and managing agency fiscal matters and administrative operations of the Office.

Prior to OIR, she served in a number public service roles, including Deputy Communications Director for the Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, leading outreach and education initiatives to improve safety across Florida's highways.

Ms. Bakofsky has a Bachelor of Health Sciences from the University of Florida and a Master of Arts in Communication and Leadership from Gonzaga University. She is also an AmeriCorps VISTA alumna.
