

ABOUT SELLERS DORSEY

Sellers Dorsey is a national health care consulting firm that helps clients navigate the ever-changing health care landscape by providing a range of consulting services in Medicaid, as well as custom Medicaid financing solutions. Since 2000 we have consulted on a range of financing, policy, and operational projects in 39 states, delivering a fully integrated suite of services to a wide array of clients.

We help clients in multiple areas of expertise, such as delivery system reform, Medicaid financing, program administration, quality improvement strategies, and health care advisory. Sellers Dorsey is home to former state Department of Human Services and Medicaid officials, former Medicaid directors, and industry executives with expertise in the development and implementation of reimbursement, financing, administration, and quality improvement strategies, along with highly qualified project management and research staff. Our team's diverse background enables us to appreciate and navigate each client's unique path to success.
